

The Blueprint to Your Million Dollar Life

Steph Mahony, Motivational Speaker, Best Selling Author, Coach, Reiki Master, Holy Light Intuitive Healer, Founder, Your Million Dollar Life, Canada

Pain is an incredible teacher as it shows we are off alignment towards achieving our purpose.

It doesn't matter where you started in this life, you have a divine purpose, something that only you can do in this world. It is your sacred dharma. Your mission. It's the highest level of your destiny that is already written in the stars and cemented into astrology the precise moment you were born. But many times, we are unaware it even exists, so we keep playing small, living in the sidelines of life and victim to our circumstances. That's until the tower falls our life, and we're snapped out of reality we know and propelled into a new direction.

What we think is happening is a downward spiral into confusion, chaos and rockbottom.

But what's really happening is that the universe is repivoting us back into the right direction.

Facing our North Star. Our Destiny

This is the awakening.

Today is your awakening.

Welcome to your chapter two that activates your highest potential, and opens a new stream of consciousness in your mind, that magnetizes you towards your North Star. Today we will talk about the follow.

1. When the Tower Falls – Why it happens and what to do (holy anger)
2. Degree of obstacles, Degree of Blessings.
3. Alignment, acceptance, surrender.
4. Your Internal Compass (It only points North) – free will, follow the breadcrumbs.
5. Life and destiny come to you in the form of choices: right or easy (Upward/Downward Spiral)
6. 80/20 Rule
7. Step into her now
8. Quantum jump into your future

This keynote speech will discuss all eight factors and give a call to action to the audience that ignites change, inspires growth and propels them to live in the highest level of their destiny.
